BITTING BROS.

OUR MOTTO: SQUARE DEALING.

With less than square dealing it would be folly to be content; for more than square dealing it is unreasonable to ask. Look out for the man who says he'll give you something for nothing. He will bear watching. We don't do anything of the kind and we don't pretend to. We give you at least as good as you can get elsewhere for your money and better than you can get in most places. We have no use for glittering and meaningless announcements. It is as much to your interest to deal with us as it is to ours. You will never show conclusively that you are wide awake than you do when you purchase clothing for yourself, boys and children from us this fall. Styles were never better and we never before had so many of them. Furnishing goods in all the late novelties. Mail orders a specialty. Our store is not open today.

THESE

Are hardly the days to throw away the hard earned cash—times are not so brisk as they were a year or so ago; a dime here and a quarter there soon dwindles the day's wages down; so in the future—(well you had better commence today)—when you want a pair of shoes drop in and see if we cannot save you several quarters.

Now a ladies fine $4.00 shoe for $2.55 is a bargain with a big B.

Then a baby shoe worth 75 cents for 50 cents is a good buy.

Likewise is men's $2.50 shoes for $1.85, all solid leather, worth purchasing. Open 'til 9 o'clock evenings.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 12.—The Michigan Methodist Episcopal conference spent the forenoon today with the case of Reverend J. W. Arney of Saranac, the pastor with a decided proclivity for fast horses. The committee appointed to investigate the matter recommended that "Brother" Arney be disciplined. Arney was called before Bishop Newman, who admonished him in forceful language that his conduct had not been at all pleasing to the church, and that, unless he curbed his passion for racing he would have to be asked for his parchment.

OKLAHOMA.

THE INDIAN RESERVATIONS TO BE OPENED NEXT WEEK.

The Recent Order With Reference to Cattle on the Cherokee Strip Final and Decisive.

Governor Steele Thinks That Religion and Quarter-Sections are the Dominant Topics in the Territory.

Commissioner Sayre Discusses the Prospects of Oklahoma—The Population Required to Occupy the Lands Recently Acquired From the Indians—The Sale of Beer in the Indian Country Declared to be Unlawful.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The indications are that the president's proclamation opening to settlement the Indian reservations in the eastern part of Oklahoma will be issued before the middle of the coming week, and the day fixed upon which entry may be actually made will follow closely upon the day of the issue of the proclamation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The recent order of the secretary of the interior that cattle must be removed from the Cherokee strip without delay gives great satisfaction to the representatives of Oklahoma's interests at the capital. The policy of the interior department with reference to the stock raising industry, which has been opposed to allowing the cattlemen to graze their herds on Indian reservations. On Feb. 17, 1890, the president gave public notice, as follows:

"First—That no cattle or live stock shall hereafter be brought upon said lands for herding or grazing thereon.
"Second—That all cattle or other live stock now on said outlet must be removed therefrom not later than Oct. 1, 1890, and so much sooner as said lands, or any of them, may be made available for settlement by citizens of the United States; and that all persons connected with said cattle companies or associations must, not later than the time above indicated, depart from said lands."

On the 19th of September, 1890, the owners of all the cattle then herded upon the outlet having submitted a proposition in writing whereby they agreed to remove one-half of their stock from the outlet on or before Nov. 1, and the residue of their property and employees on or before Dec. 1. The proposition was accepted, and the outlet, then said outlet, the president extended the time before fixed to Nov. 1, as to one-half of the stock, and to Dec. 1, as to the residue thereof, and so as to all property and employees.

On Aug. 13, 1891, the president directed that the Cherokee on said strip or outlet should be made available for settlement and opened farms which they were improving and cultivating, and whose removal at that time would cause a loss of crops and great sacrifice, should not then be driven out; yet it was not intended that other persons or any cattle or live stock other than those actually held by the bona fide Cherokee settlers should be expected.

It appearing on due investigation by the military authorities on the strip, says the secretary of the interior, that the exception made, in point of fact affected but one or two persons, if any, intended to be excepted and property of very small value, if any, and that the Cherokee were not ranging to ship cattle to and open farms in the strip—the president, on Aug. 31, instructed the secretary of war that no exception should be made in the present location or placing herds on the strip after said order or in violation of it; and that said order should be enforced by the military authorities, acting in concert with the department of the interior. Secretary Noble's order concludes as follows:

Those having cattle or other stock on these lands, known as the Cherokee strip, whether Cherokee Indians, white men or others, must remove therefrom with their stock without delay.

It is desirable that the present orders should inflict little loss, as they will if they are promptly obeyed, but the thought that they will be changed or any further evasion allowed should be at once abandoned."

OKLAHOMA'S PROSPECTS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Governor George W. Steele, who is in the city on his way to the interior, yesterday gave an interview concerning Oklahoma affairs, said:

"There isn't any politics in Oklahoma this year. Religion and quarter-sections seem to be the dominant topics in the territory just now. I can't say just when the additional public lands will be thrown open to settlement, but I believe the date has been discounted, and large crowds are on the line waiting for the signal to rush in and take up the lands. Several millions more of acres will thus be added to Oklahoma, and when some treaties with the Indians yet to be made are perfected it will include an area about two and one-half times the size of the territory as it now stands. Yes, we will have a state at some time in the future, but it will doubtless include the five civilized tribes. Counting them, we have now plenty of population for statehood, some 600,000 or 700,000 people."

Hon. Warren G. Sayre of the Cherokee commission, who accompanied the Kinkaid expedition to Washington, talked to the reporter concerning the new territory's prospects, as follows:

"Twenty thousand people are ready to move in on the land which is to be opened in Oklahoma next week. Five thousand quarter-sections mean 5,000 families and averaging four to a family, that gives us 20,000 people. Who did we get this land from? From the Iowa, Sac, Foxes, Shawnees and Pottawatomies. Contracts have been ratified by congress and the land is open to settlement. A contract with the Cheyennes and Arapahoes has been ratified, but as those Indians have not yet taken the allotments due them there can be no immigration. The Indians must have five choices. We have them. We have been allotted, though, there will be a surplus of 3,500,000 acres—22,000 homesteads. Congress meets there will be presented to it an agreement with the Kickapoo by which an additional tract of 182,000 acres can be turned into public land. Altogether the soil we have purchased will provide homes for 120,000 people. Each purchaser, by the provisions of the existing law, adds so much to the territory of Oklahoma, and when the desired ratifications and allotments have been made Oklahoma will be three times its present size. No portion of the United States has made a better showing than the territory of Oklahoma, and within a year we will have a population of at least 150,000 people."

CHICKASAW INTRUDERS.

ARMED, I. T., Sept. 12.—Indian agent Bennett, in a letter received in this city, sums up the intruder situation as follows: "There are some persons in the Chickasaw nation whose presence there is without authority of law, and such persons ought to be removed from the country. This can only be done at considerable expense. To cover the entire nation will cost several thousand dollars. It is the duty of the United States government to effect these removals. This ought to be done without expense to the nation, but congress has not provided the funds whereby this agency can do the work; in other words, government funds are not available for the expense? Who, then, shall bear this expense? I have acquainted Governor Byrd with this condition and advised that if the Nation will foot the necessary cost the work will be continued at any date. If the Chickasaw nation does not do this I can only refer the matter to the department with an estimate of the expense, and in turn it will be placed before congress for its consideration. If the work is continued by me, it will be upon the same basis and with the same rules which I operated in July last. The continuation, therefore, depends on the matter of footing the bills incurred in effecting the removal. It is provided for by the nation, the work will be resumed at an early date; if by congress, possibly next spring."

BEER IN THE TERRITORY.

SOUTH MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 12.—The United States court has denied the motion to quash the indictment against E. P. Scott of Paris, Texas, for selling beer in the territory. Scott's attorneys moved to quash the indictment on the grounds that it charged no offense against the law, and that beer was not a spirituous liquor. This reverses the lower court's decision.

BURNETT'S BOOM.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE DAILY EAGLE.

OKLAHOMA CITY, I. T., Sept. 12.—William Greifenstein, who has just arrived from Burnett, reports that contracts have been let for building 150 houses. The lumber is going in rapidly, a brick yard is under way, and everything is moving along splendidly.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The weather crop bulletin issued by the department of agriculture says that the temperature during the past week has been cool generally over the country east of the Rocky mountains and over the corn and cotton regions, where warm weather was most needed. The average daily temperature being from four to six degrees below the normal. It was slightly warmer in Minnesota and Dakota, and thence westward to the Pacific coast, where the temperature during the week at the extreme northern stations and in western Nebraska, but they did not occur within the principal crop producing sections. The warm dry weather during the latter part of the week must have been favorable to the crop. There has been an excess of rainfall during the past week in the New England and Middle Atlantic states and over the lake region and Florida. Very little rain occurred during the week in the central valley, where the rainfall has been in excess as reported in the Indian Territory, Kansas and Minnesota. In Missouri corn is maturing well, and the early planted corn is out of danger from frost. In the south, the crops are in good condition. It is too dry for fall seeding. In Kansas all crops are secure from frost except late corn in the south. The outlook for the future is greatly improved by rain, and will be safe by the 25th of the month.

BUTLER COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

LEON, Kan., Sept. 12.—[Special.]—The Republicans of Butler county held a county meeting at Parker's grove, ten miles east of this city, yesterday. Fully 1,000 people were on the ground, delegations being present from Benton, Douglas and El Dorado. The Leon brass band and the El Dorado glee club entertained the crowd. An ox was roasted, and a fine speech was made by a man, Bob Moore of Benton, occupied the chair during the forenoon, and Seymour Fox, Esq. of Benton, a bright, young lawyer, made a fine speech before dinner. An adjournment was then had for two hours, while the crowd disposed of the abundance of fried chicken, baked turkey, roast beef and mutton, and other good things.

After dinner Hon. Abe Leedy of the Little Walnut valley took the stand, and, after a short speech, introduced Senator Bentley of Wichita, who spoke nearly two hours, holding the close attention of his audience, and discussing fully and carefully all of the issues of the present campaign. He said that the Butler county Republicans had the platform of Kansas, and said that he was fully in accord with the sentiment, "Protection is defense; reciprocity is conquest."

The candidates of the Republican party in Butler county were present and participated in the meeting, which was most satisfactory to the party.

In the evening Senator Bentley and Mr. Fox addressed a Republican rally in the Leon opera house.

THE MUSGRAVE INSURANCE FRAUD.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12.—Documentary evidence damaging to B. R. Musgrave, who tried to swindle various insurance companies by leaving a skeleton to burn in a log cabin near Terre Haute, Ind., has just been furnished by Parson & Co. of this city, dealers in doctors' paraphernalia. It was this firm that sold the skeleton to Musgrave, and the letters constitute the strongest evidence yet brought against him, completely substantiating Charles M. Trout's confession. On the 14th of August, Parson & Co. received a letter from a man in Chicago signing himself "T. B. Burnham," asking the price of an unmounted skeleton, not too old, and about five feet seven inches high. After receiving an answer and the price, this alleged Burnham wrote another letter, in which he wished to know whether the skeleton could be shipped in a box that would not attract attention. Upon receipt of the answer to this, Burnham sent the money, with directions to have the skeleton sent to Chicago as near August 17 as possible. Burnham said the bones were for the use of his son and companions, who were studying medicine at Greencastle, Ind. The skeleton was shipped, accordingly, on Aug. 14, by Parson & Co. According to the confession made by Trout, Musgrave's fellow conspirator, the bones found in the cabin on the Vabash were those of a skeleton purchased by T. B. Burnham of Parson & Co. of St. Louis. This was the first intimation the St. Louis firm had that it had been innocently playing into the hands of a desperate swindler.

HARVEY COUNTY ALLIANCE.

NEWTON, Kan., Sept. 12.—[Special.]—The People's party convention met at the court house yesterday afternoon and placed a complete ticket in the field. The platform embraced everything from the sub-treasury scheme to the Jerry Simpson money bill. Following is the ticket nominated: Treasurer, W. E. Francis of Newton; county clerk, David Gray of Newton; sheriff, J. Howard of Newton; register of deeds, J. H. Noble of Emma township; surveyor, L. B. Hamblin of Barton; coroner, Dr. J. B. Bell of Barton.

After the informal ballot for register of deeds a great row arose. J. H. Gresham of Barton City received 35 votes, against J. H. Noble's 25. This was too much for some of the faithful, and many very pertinent questions were asked, such as "How does he stand on the St. Louis platform?" "How long has he sought the office?" "Is he not a Democrat?" and many others. After much speech making and log-rolling the convention proceeded to ballot, and J. H. Noble was nominated.

A NAVAL ORDER.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Secretary Tracy has issued an order intended to put in practice the system adopted in the army a year ago of ascending periodically the fitness of officers for their various professional duties, the intention being to enable the navy department to assign officers to the discharge of functions for which they may show special aptitudes.
